

For immediate release

Contact: Barry Holt
203-517-3110
203-517-3100
bholt@informationsg.com

INFORMATION SERVICES GROUP
ANNOUNCES LEADERSHIP TEAM,
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

STAMFORD, CT, February 26, 2007 – Information Services Group, Inc. (AMEX: III) announced today the members of its leadership team and Board of Directors that have a track record of creating significant value for shareholders and clients.

“This is a team with extensive experience and broad expertise in managing all facets of a global information services business including marketing and client service, sales, operations, finance and legal,” said Michael P. Connors, Chairman & Chief Executive Officer. “Having closed our IPO on February 6 we are ready to build a high-growth, industry leading information services company.”

Before the formation of Information Services Group, Mr. Connors was Chairman & CEO of the Media Measurement & Information Group of VNU, now known as The Nielsen Company. His responsibilities included Nielsen Media Research and related media information, entertainment, software and Internet businesses. Mr. Connors also was Chairman of VNU World Directories Yellow Pages business. Before joining VNU, he was Vice Chairman of ACNielsen Corporation, the world leader in marketing information services, and earlier served as Senior Vice President of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation. He serves as a Director of R.H. Donnelley and Eastman.

Joining Mr. Connors on the leadership team are:

Frank D. Martell, Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Martell has 25 years of senior management experience in operations and finance. He was formerly Chief Operating Officer of ACNielsen Corporation and CEO of ACNielsen Europe and Emerging Markets. He spent the previous 11 years with VNU, ACNielsen and The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation serving in a series of global financial and senior operating positions. Mr. Martell spent 15 years at General Electric in a series of senior financial management positions.

Earl H. Doppelt, Executive Vice President & General Counsel. Mr. Doppelt has over thirty years of general counsel experience and has had extensive dealings in managing a number of complex M&A transactions. He was formerly EVP & Chief Legal Officer of VNU, ACNielsen Corporation and The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation. Prior to D&B, he was SVP and Deputy General Counsel of Paramount Communications. Earlier he was a litigator specializing in antitrust and securities matters for the law firm of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison.

Richard G. Gould, Executive Vice President. Mr. Gould was formerly a Managing Director at Morgan Stanley, where he had a career spanning more than 20 years. His experience included global sales management, marketing, new product innovation and capital markets. He managed major businesses for Morgan Stanley in New York, Tokyo and London.

Francis B. Barker, Senior Advisor – M&A. Mr. Barker has over 17 years of leading strategic and financial initiatives in the information and media sectors. He was previously Senior Vice President of M&A and Strategy at Dex Media, a directory and search company; Managing Director at The Carlyle Group; and Principal in investment banking at Morgan Stanley, with a focus on the information, media, and business services sectors.

Barry Holt, Senior Advisor – Communications. Mr. Holt has over 35 years of corporate communications, investor relations and public relations experience. He was formerly Corporate VP, Global Communications, Whirlpool Corporation; SVP, Global Communications, ACNielsen; and VP, Corporate Communications, Philip Morris Companies.

Information Services Group Board of Directors, in addition to Mr. Connors, are:

Robert J. Chrenc, most recently served as Non-Executive Chairman for Symbol Technologies, a leading provider of products and solutions that capture, move and manage information. Previously he was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for ACNielsen Corporation. Earlier he spent 28 years in client management at Arthur Andersen, including 17 years as a partner.

R. Glenn Hubbard, Dean of Columbia University's Graduate School of Business and Russell L. Carson Professor of Finance and Economics. He has had a distinguished career in business, governance and academics. Mr. Hubbard is a former Chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, Co-Chairman of the Committee on Capital Markets Regulation and is currently a Director of ADP, Inc., Duke Realty Corporation, KKR Financial Corp and MetLife, Inc.

Robert E. Weissman, former Chairman & CEO of IMS Health, Cognizant Corporation and The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation. He has had extensive public company and Board experience for leading information services companies. Mr. Weissman is currently a Director of Cognizant Technology Solutions Corporation, State Street Corporation and Pitney Bowes, Inc.

#

About Information Services Group

Information Services Group, Inc. is an acquisition company founded in 2006 to build a high-growth, industry-leading information services company. The company is seeking acquisitions in areas such as: business, media and consumer information; advisory, data and marketing services; marketing research; internet-based information and other segments of the information services industry. Based in Stamford, CT, Information Services Group is led by a world class team with extensive global experience in information services and a track record of creating significant value for shareholders, clients and employees.

For more information refer to the company website: www.informationsg.com