INFORMATION SERVICES GROUP ELECTS DAVID BERGER EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Seasoned financial executive brings significant major corporate experience in finance, acquisitions and investor relations

STAMFORD, Conn., September 25, 2009 – Information Services Group, Inc. (ISG) (NASDAQ: III, IIIIU, IIIIW), an industry-leading, information-based services company, announced today that David E. Berger, with nearly 30 years of financial experience, including the information services industry, has been elected Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the company effective October 5, 2009.

Mr. Berger was most recently Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and Investor Relations with The Nielsen Company, a $5 billion global information and media company, where he spent more than eight years. He will succeed Frank Martell who is relocating to California and has accepted a CFO position with a privately held services company.

“I am extremely pleased to welcome David to the ISG team,” said Michael P. Connors, Chairman and CEO, ISG. “David and I worked closely together at Nielsen for a number of years and he brings a wealth of acquisition, cost management and financial expertise as we now prepare to move ISG to the next level of growth. Frank played an important role in the launch of ISG and I want to thank him for his contributions and wish him and his family the best in the future.”

Prior to Nielsen, Mr. Berger was with Simon & Schuster (S&S) and Viacom for nine years, where he held a variety of increasingly important financial positions including Senior Vice President of Finance and Controller of S&S. He was the lead on development and strategic initiatives; financial and operational matters; and managed a staff of over 200 financial professionals.

Mr. Berger was previously at American National Can Company as Director and Business Controller of one of its divisions. He began his career in public accounting with Touche Ross & Company (now Deloitte).

Mr. Berger is a graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and earned his Masters of Business Administration from the University of Chicago.
