Important Legal Information:

In connection with the proposed acquisition, ISG has prepared a preliminary proxy statement that has been filed with the SEC. After regulatory review, a definitive proxy statement and a form of proxy will be mailed to the stockholders of ISG. Before making any voting decision, ISG's stockholders are urged to read the proxy statement regarding the acquisition carefully and in its entirety because it will contain important information about the proposed acquisition. ISG's stockholders will be able to obtain, without charge, a copy of the proxy statement and other relevant documents filed with the SEC from the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. ISG's stockholders will also be able to obtain, without charge, a copy of the proxy statement and other relevant documents (when available) by directing a request by mail or telephone to Corporate Secretary, Information Services Group, Inc., Four Stamford Plaza, 107 Elm Street, Stamford, CT 06902, telephone: 203-517-3100, or from ISG's website at <http://www.informationsg.com>

Forward Looking Statements:

This communication contains "forward-looking statements" which represent the current expectations and beliefs of management of ISG concerning the proposed acquisition of TPI and other future events and their potential effects on ISG and TPI. The statements, analyses, and other information contained herein relating to the proposed acquisition, as well as other statements including words such as "anticipate," "believe," "contemplate," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "will," "continue," "should," "may," and other similar expressions, are "forward-looking statements" under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future results and are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated. Those factors include, without limitation: (1) whether the stockholders of ISG approve the proposed acquisition; (2) the number and percentage of stockholders seeking conversion; (3) the satisfaction of the other conditions specified in the purchase agreement; (4) the ability to successfully combine the businesses of ISG and TPI; (5) the amount of cash available, operating costs and business disruption following the acquisition, including adverse effects on relationships with employees; (6) changes in the stock market and interest rate environment that affect revenues; (7) diversion of management time on acquisition related issues; (8) reaction of TPI clients to the transaction; (9) retention of key employees upon announcement of the proposed acquisition and following closing; (10) general economic conditions such as inflation; and (11) general political and social conditions such as war, political unrest and terrorism. The risks also relate to inherent business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies relating to the business of TPI including: (1) failure to secure new engagements or loss of important clients; (2) ability to hire and retain enough qualified employees to support operations; (3) ability to maintain or increase billing and utilization rates; (4) management of rapid growth; (5) success of expansion internationally; (6) competition; (7) ability to move the product mix into higher margin businesses; (8) operating TPI as a public company; (9) healthcare and benefit cost management; (10) ability to protect ISG and TPI's intellectual property and the intellectual property of others; (11) currency fluctuations and exchange rate adjustments; (12) ability to successfully consummate or integrate strategic acquisitions; and (13) ability to achieve the cost reduction and productivity improvements contemplated by the "Value Creation Plan" ISG intends to initiate after closing. Certain of these and other applicable risks, cautionary statements and factors that could cause actual results to differ from ISG's forward-looking statements are included in ISG's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), specifically as described in ISG's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, and ISG's proxy statement. ISG undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
